Dear Principal and Teachers,

Vibrant, fun, and educational---CAAM Chinese Dance Theater's upcoming Chinese New Year dance performance offers a perfect field trip opportunity during the Chinese New Year period.

CAAM Chinese Dance Theater celebrates its 20th year and invites you and your students to our 13th annual Chinese New Year School Show Traditions: A Spirited Celebration of Chinese New Year on Tuesday, January 29, 2013, at the O'Shaughnessy Auditorium of St. Catherine University in St Paul. The show, featuring more than 70 school-age performers, provides an entertaining and educational glimpse into Chinese culture. The unique dance styles and music, vibrant colors, and energetic choreography bring to the audience an exciting experience of entertainment and cultural emersion. What a great way for your classroom to celebrate Chinese New Year!

For the last twelve years, CAAM Chinese Dance Theater has celebrated the most important Chinese holiday of the year, Chinese New Year, with over 1,000 students annually. This year, our 45-minute program celebrates Chinese New Year traditions with dances that feature traditional props. Beautiful fans, colorful ribbons, and flowing silks will transport you to China to experience the richness of this important holiday. School materials accompanying this show will feature the traditions of Chinese New Year, creating a rich cultural learning experience for students and teachers alike.

At $7 per ticket, this event is very affordable. We offer subsidized tickets to most free-and-reduced lunch students. Once we receive your ticket order, we will forward you an Education Guide to help you prepare for your lessons and activities for your classroom. We are excited to share our work with you and hope to see you at the performance! Please contact us with any questions.

Sincerely,

Lili Teng
