Dear CDT,

November 2014

For almost twenty five years, CAAM Chinese Dance Theater has brought premier quality, locally produced dance and shared its expertise through classes, workshops, residencies and summer camps throughout the region, serving more than ten thousand annually. CDT is extremely grateful to everyone who volunteers their precious time and shares their financial resources.

Please consider making a gift to CAAM Chinese Dance Theater during the charitable giving season to allow us to continue to serve the community. With your support, no matter how small, we share Chinese heritage through the universal language of dance!

Production 2015: Dancing in Chinese Opera

Vibrant costumes, agile movement and professional staging are the hallmarks of CAAM Chinese Dance Theater's productions, and our 2015 show, "Dancing in Chinese Opera," will be no exception. This year's production will delight and entertain with dances inspired by Chinese legends, classical Chinese dance, ba zi gong and the many forms of Chinese opera still enthusiastically performed today. CAAM CDT will explore the movement and stories of Chinese opera with dazzling display of sleeves, swords, spears and daggers. The end result will be a technically superb and artistically groundbreaking presentation that CAAM CDT is known for!

Kick off your Chinese New Year celebrations with your family and friends with a full-length 90 minute program Saturday January 31 at 7 pm, and Sunday Feb. 1 at 2 pm. Tickets are $15 in advance or at the door.

A special, shorter 45 minute matinee performance on Tuesday Feb. 3 (9:45am and 11:45 am) is ideal for school and group field trips-- including retiree or Senior citizen groups. This abbreviated show is priced at $7 per ticket, and can be a great introduction to our shows!

Tickets available online at www.caamcdt.org, or by calling 651-774-0806.
